

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Asia-Pacific Disaster Report is a biennial flagship publication of the ICT and Disaster Risk Reduction Division of the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP). Its 2017 issue was prepared under the leadership and guidance of Shamshad Akhtar, Under-Secretary-General of the United Nations and Executive Secretary of ESCAP. Kaveh Zahedi, Deputy Executive Secretary and Tiziana Bonapace, Director, ICT and Disaster Risk Reduction Division (IDD) provided direction and advice.

Members of the core team led by Sanjay Srivastava, Chief, Disaster Risk Reduction Section, IDD, included Sung Eun Kim, Kareff Rafisura, Madhurima Sarkar-Swaigood and Amin Shamseddini, while Syed Ahmed, Ingrid Dispert, Andrew Hurd and Joo Yeon Moon contributed substantively.

ESCAP staff who provided inputs and comments include Youjin Choe, Kelly Hayden, Tae Hyung Kim, Siope Ofa, Atsuko Okuda, Puji Pujiono, Eric Roeder and Edward Turvill of the ICT and Disaster Risk Reduction Division; Kyungkoo Kang, Katinka Weinberger, and Natalja Wehmer of the Environment and Development Division; Masakazu Ichimura and Ita Sualia of the ESCAP's Centre for Alleviation of Poverty through Sustainable Agriculture in Indonesia; Laura Altinger of the Macroeconomic Policy and Financing for Development Division; and Michael Williamson of the Office of the Executive Secretary.

ESCAP consultants P.G. Chakrabarti of TERI India and Anshu Sharma of SEEDS Asia provided background papers. Technical inputs were received from ESCAP partners, namely from G. Srinivasan, Anshu Agarwal, A. R. Subbiah and Carlyne Yu of the Regional Integrated Multi-Hazard Early Warning System for Africa and Asia (RIMES); Giriraj Amarnath of the International Water Management Institute; V. Jayaraman of the Indian Space Research Organization; and Khaled Mashfiq of the United Nations Institute for Training and Research. The Coupled Model Intercomparison Project modeling groups provided climate change projections..

The report benefited from extensive comments of an eminent group of scholars and development practitioners acting as external peer reviewers, namely Arghya Sinha Roy of the Asian Development Bank; Yuichi Ono and Daisuke Sasaki of the International Research Institute of Disaster Science at Tohoku University; Rajib Shaw from Keio University; Rajesh Sharma of the United Nations Development Programme; Aslam Perwaiz of the Asian Disaster Preparedness Center; and Yuji Niino from the Food and Agriculture Organization. The early versions of the chapters were enriched by the feedback provided by the participants of the Regional Learning Platforms : Mainstreaming Disaster Risk Reduction and Resilience into Sustainable Development held during the 2017 Asia-Pacific Forum on Sustainable Development.

Advice and comments were received from members of the United Nations Asia-Pacific Regional Coordination Mechanism Thematic Working Group on Disaster Risk Reduction and Resilience, which includes Gul Mohammad Ahmadi, Lance Bonneau, Andrew Lind, Michael Speir of the International Organization for Migration; Oliver Lacey-Hall of the Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs; Sanny Jegillos of the United Nations Development Programme; and Sujit Kumar Mohanty of the United Nations Office for Disaster Risk Reduction. The manuscript was edited by Peter Stalker. The graphic design and layout was created by Marie Ange Sylvain-Holmgren, Creative Director, Image Ark.

Narada Kalra and Narathit Sirirat provided administrative assistance. Suraphong Chuachamsai, Pradtana Limkrailassiri, Yukhontorn Suewaja assisted with proofreading and finalization of the publication.

ESCAP interns Uijin Choe, Marco Guzzetti, Kaiqin Huang, Manashwee Kafley, Jieun Kang, and Joohyun Ryu provided research assistance.

Ricardo Dunn, Katie Elles, Kavita Sukanandan and Sompot Suphuththamongkhon from the ESCAP Strategic Communications and Advocacy Section coordinated the media launch and promotion of the report.
