Thailand's Department of Export Promotion (DEP) of the Ministry of Commerce is functions to help Thai manufacturers and traders increase exports. The DEP primarily cares for foreign buyers looking to source exports from Thailand. Thai Trade Centres are found in various countries with a computerized trade database accessible through any overseas Thai Trade Centre, or at DEP's Bangkok headquarters. Access can be arranged by fax or e-mail. The database contains current export and import data, lists of selected exporters and manufacturers and related data useful to foreign buyers.

Foreign buyers may benefit from DEP's overseas trade promotions, including over 40 foreign trade fairs annually in which Thai exporters showcase their top products DEP organizes sales missions in which Thai exporters, business leaders and trade specialists visit international sites in Europe, North America, and elsewhere in Asia.

There are a number of publications issued by the Department of Export Promotion: The Daily Trade News, Exporter's Review, Thailand's Exporters Selected List, The Thais at Leisure, Product brochures, brochures for trade fairs and trade missions, and Guide for Business Visitors to Thailand.
