WHY MALAYSIA NEEDS A NEW URBAN AGENDA?

1. Educate and focus attention on urgent urban challenges and future opportunities
2. Mobilize and empower all urban actors around practical problem solving
3. Address the specific challenges of urban poverty and access to infrastructure
4. Promote integrated and innovative infrastructure design and service delivery
5. Promote land use planning and efficient spatial concentration
6. Ensure resilience to climate change and disaster risk reduction

SDGs AND NEW URBAN AGENDA

Inclusive and sustainable economic growth, with full and productive employment and decent work for all, is a key element of sustainable urban development where people can live healthy, productive, prosperous, and fulfilling lives.

Development must protect the planet and enable all inhabitants, whether living in formal or informal settlements, to lead decent, dignified, and rewarding lives, and to achieve their full human potential.

Unsustainable consumption and production patterns, loss of biodiversity, pressure on ecosystems, pollution, natural and man-made disasters, and climate change and its related risks, undermine efforts to end poverty and to achieve sustainable development.

The NUA is anchored in participatory urban policies that mainstream sustainable urban and territorial development as part of integrated development strategies and plans, supported by institutional and regulatory frameworks linked to transparent and accountable finance mechanisms.

Balanced territorial development that accounts for different scales of cities and human settlements, strengthens their role in food security and nutrition systems, puts housing at the centre, builds infrastructure and services, facilitates trade, and connects farmers and fishers across value chains and markets.
Part 1: Transformative Commitments for Sustainable Urban Development

1.1. Sustainable Urban Development for Social Inclusion and Ending Poverty
• Social Inclusion and Ending Poverty
• Access to Adequate Housing
• Access to Basic Services

1.2. Sustainable and Inclusive Urban Prosperity and Opportunities for
• All Inclusive Urban Economy
• Sustainable Prosperity for All

1.3. Environmentally Sustainable and Resilient Urban Development
• Resilience, Mitigation and Adaptation of Cities and Human Settlements
• Sustainable Management and Use of Natural Resources

Part 2: Effective Implementation

2.1. Building the Urban Governance Structure: Establishing a Supportive Framework

2.2. Planning and Managing Urban Spatial Development

2.3. Means of Implementation
• Mobilization of Financial Resources
• Capacity Development
• Information Technology and Innovation

These guidelines have been prepared in response to Resolution (RES/71/256. New Urban Agenda) adopted by the General Assembly on 23 December 2016, which endorses the New Urban Agenda adopted by the United Nations Conference on Housing and Sustainable Urban Development (Habitat III).

Game Changer III
Transforming Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises as the New Driver of Growth

Game Changer IV
Enhancing National Security and Unity for Nation-Building

Game Changer V
Revitalising the Healthcare System in Ensuring a Healthy and Productive Nation

Game Changer VI
Transforming the Approach in Eradicating Hardcore Poverty

Chapter 6: Improving Regional Balance and Inclusion

Priority Area A: Optimising Regional Economic Potential

Priority Area B: Developing Sustainable Cities

Priority Area C: Transforming Rural Areas to Bridge Development Gap

Game Changer VII:
Multiplying Growth in Less Developed States especially Sabah and Sarawak to Reduce Development Gap

By the year 2040, about 85% of the total population is estimated to live in urban areas. Priority will be given in promoting effective urban planning and governance, fostering a sustainable urban economy, prioritising green and resilient urban development as well as developing sustainable urban society. This will promote better inclusion and enhance the wellbeing of urban dwellers.

The measure also in line with the New Urban Agenda (NUA) to support the 2030 Agenda.
