

About UCLG ASPAC

United Cities and Local Governments (UCLG) is a worldwide association of local governments and the officially recognised voice of local governments by the United Nations.

With a network of more than 7,000 cities and local governments, UCLG Asia-Pacific (ASPAC) is the largest regional section of United Cities and Local Governments (UCLG).

UCLG ASPAC coordinates and supports various partnerships in the region, including Asia-Pacific Local Government Coordinating Body (APLG), Asia-Pacific Mayors Academy, Integrated Urban Systems Partnership, and Penang Platform for Sustainable Urbanisation.

UCLG ASPAC Strategies to Strengthen Cities Network in Achieving Low Carbon Societies

1. Working with cities and local governments to proactively plan and commit to climate actions
2. Triggering cities and local governments to proactively implement climate actions
3. Collaborate with relevant partners to leverage project impact to cities beneficiaries for example:

With EU and South Asia institutions in Climate Resilient and Inclusive Cities (CRIC) Project co-funded by European Commission

Hosting the Global Covenant of Mayors for Climate and Energy Secretariat for Southeast Asia region since 2018 and support the implementation of GCoM Asia Project (2021-2023) for South East Asia

With UCLG World, UNESCAP and ADB, supporting the preparation of Voluntary Local Review (VLR) and Voluntary Subnational Review (VSR) to showcase the SDGs attainment
