S.A.M.O.A Pathway – Lessons Learned

- The 4\textsuperscript{th} Int’l Conference on SIDS
  - Under the terms of operative paragraphs 22, 24, 30, 31, 32, 34, 35, 36 and 37 of draft resolution \textit{A/C.2/77/L.55},
- 2\textsuperscript{nd} or 3\textsuperscript{rd} Quarter - 2024
  - Aimed at assessing the ability of small island developing States to achieve sustainable development, including the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and its Sustainable Development Goals
30. Also decides that the national, regional, interregional and substantive preparations should be carried out in a most effective, well-structured and broad participatory manner and that, for this purpose, the Department of Economic and Social Affairs, through its Small Island Developing States Unit, the Office of the High Representative and the relevant organizations of the United Nations system, including the regional commissions, within their respective mandates and available resources, should provide the necessary support to the Conference and its preparatory process;

31. Further decides that the Conference will result in an intergovernmentally agreed, focused, forward-looking and action-oriented political outcome document;
