Ageing Policy Dashboard

4-5 August 2022, virtual

Vanessa Steinmayer
Population Affairs Officer
Background and objectives

• Outcome of the Asia-Pacific MIPAA review in 2017:
  “Encourage the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific to continue, inter alia, … supporting, as appropriate, its members in creating forward-looking policies and monitoring frameworks to prepare for and adjust to the social and economic implications of ageing;”

• Outcome of the Asia-Pacific MIPAA review in 2022:
  “To support members and associate members of the Commission, upon request, in formulating forward-looking policies and actions to prepare for and adjust to the social and economic implications of ageing, as well as to mainstream ageing into policies, plans and programmes, as appropriate”.

Sources of data and information

• Data and information provided by members and associate members through the survey for the regional MIPAA review in 2017 and 2022

• Information on Government websites

• Review by experts, as appropriate
ESCAP website on population trends

https://www.population-trends-asiapacific.org/
Ageing policy dashboard

Policies on Population Ageing in Asia and the Pacific

Rapid population ageing in the Asia-Pacific region requires inclusive policies in line with the Madrid International Plan of Action on Ageing. The map indicates what policies are adopted in Asia and the Pacific.

- Interactive map presenting policies on population ageing in Asia and the Pacific
Ageing policy dashboard – Example

Mongolia policy profile overview:
- National Coordinating Body;
- National Policy on Ageing;
- Others.
Ageing policy dashboard – Example

Link of the official document (where possible)

LAW OF MONGOLIA ON SOCIAL INSURANCE
14 May 1994
Ulaanbaatar

CHAPTER ONE
General provisions

Article 1. Purpose of the law
The purpose of this law is to define the types and forms of social insurance, and the scope of its effect, to define the legal basis for social insurance registration and payment of insurance premiums, the formation of the social insurance fund and its administration, the legal basis for insurance institutions and the activities of social insurance inspectors, and to regulate relations related to their implementation.

Article 2. Legislation on social insurance
1. The legislation on social insurance consists of the Constitution, this law and other legislation made in conformity with them.
2. If an international agreement to which Mongolia is a party provides other than this law, the provisions of the international agreement shall be followed.
Ageing policy dashboard – Example

Overview of ageing related policies
Ageing policy dashboard – Example

Overview of population data
Overview of the existing policies (based on survey responses) according to different categories
Next steps

- Feedback from country focal points
- Inclusion of good practices from countries
- Input from CSOs, OPAs etc.
- Any other feedback
- Test, revision and technical finalization
Thank You!

For any questions, please contact escap-sdd@un.org

More information:

• Asia-Pacific Intergovernmental Meeting on the Fourth Review and Appraisal of the Madrid International Plan of Action on Ageing
• MIPAA 2022 videos