This expert dialogue will provide an opportunity for countries to share their experiences on data governance issues, using a 'world café' format to allow participants to explore a number of data governance issues by discussing them in small table groups.