The Asia-Pacific Intergovernmental Meeting on the Fourth Review and Appraisal of the Madrid International Plan of Action on Ageing is scheduled to take place from 29 June to 1 July 2022.

As part of this review and appraisal, ESCAP is organizing stakeholder consultations on the three priority directions of MIPAA. The purpose of these consultations is to facilitate and expand collaboration and participation in the regional review and appraisal process. The first stakeholder consultation will focus on priority direction 1 and address “older persons and development”. COVID-19, climate change and digital technologies will be addressed throughout the consultations. Gender considerations will be mainstreamed.

The consultation will be held on 7 April 2022.
