Dear participants, please answer the questions in this poll at your own pace.
Translation Instructions

On Android

On iPhone

On Chrome

On MacOS

Translation instructions for different devices
Do you produce statistics on direct economic loss from disasters?

- Yes: 13
- No: 23
- I don't know: 3
Which agency in your country is responsible for producing statistics on direct economic loss from disasters?
Is there a collaboration between government agencies in estimating the direct economic loss from disasters in your country?
What are the roles of NSO in the production of direct economic loss from disasters in your country?

- Collect and produce statistics on direct economic loss: 9
- Coordinate production of direct economic loss: 4
- Provide other relevant data and statistics: 14
- Advise the responsible agency on relevant statistical issues/standards/practices: 5
- Others: 1
- No involvement: 2
In your country, what do you use statistics on direct economic loss from disasters for? (provide your input in any language)
What are the three most important challenges to produce statistics on direct economic loss from disasters in your country?

- Lack of demand/political willingness: 8
- Lack of technical knowledge: 13
- Insufficient human resources: 10
- Insufficient funding: 9
- Lack of relevant legal frameworks: 1
- Lack of institutional arrangements and collaborations: 10
- Lack of technical assistance and/or training: 10
- Other: 2
Thanks for the input!

Will get back to you on the decided topic.