SDG 11
Make Cities and Communities Inclusive, Safe, Resilient and Sustainable

Norliza Hashim
7th November 2022
Malaysia Commits to the SDGs and has a strong institutional framework to support the sustainability agenda in Malaysia.
MALAYSIA
SDGs PROGRESS 2021 AND 2022 (SEPT)

Bilangan pembekal data: 36 Kementerian/Agensi
Bilangan Indikator SDG Global: 248 Indikator
Tahun 2021: 146 Indikator SDG tersedia (59%)
Tahun 2022 (sehingga September 2022): 169 Indikator
SDG tersedia (68%)

Source : DOSM Malaysia

10 TARGETS
15 INDICATORS, 5 MINISTRIES & 13 AGENCIES
SDG 11 is most significant to Malaysia as 77% of Malaysians today resides in cities and urban areas. Hence both the pandemic and climate change affected the urban dwellers.

IMPACT OF THE PANDEMIC (2020)

Health Crisis that became a social & economic crisis

ECONOMIC IMPACT

-5.6% GDP contraction (end 2020) improves to 6.9% in half quarter of 2022.

- 4.1% unemployment rate (2020- up to 1M loss of jobs)
- 40% SMEs was said to wind up operations
- 47% Self-employed workers lost their jobs

AFFECTING INCOME

- 10.3% Mean Household income decline
  - 20% M40 shift to B40, 12.8% T20 shift into M40
  - Additional 12.5% with mean income below RM2500.00

Malaysia Today

POPULATION MALAYSIA

32.7 M (2021), 41.5 M (2040)

URBANIZATION RATE

78% (2021), 85% (2040)

AGEING SOCIETY

7% (2020), 14% (2040)

RISING GAP IN INCOME

0.38 (2016), 0.4 (2020), Poverty Rate – 5.6% (2020)

DECEMBER 2021 FLOODS IN MALAYSIA

Affected 8 States in Malaysia
125,000 people were affected and 71,000 people were displaced
Property Damages – USD 4.5 Billion (RM20 billion)

POPULATION MALAYSIA

32.7 M (2021), 41.5 M (2040)

URBANIZATION RATE

78% (2021), 85% (2040)

AGEING SOCIETY

7% (2020), 14% (2040)

RISING GAP IN INCOME

0.38 (2016), 0.4 (2020), Poverty Rate – 5.6% (2020)

DECEMBER 2021 FLOODS IN MALAYSIA

Affected 8 States in Malaysia
125,000 people were affected and 71,000 people were displaced
Property Damages – USD 4.5 Billion (RM20 billion)
Malaysia SDG Cities encourages cities to have set targets and goals towards the sustainability agenda and ensure no one is left behind. It is the roadmap for VLR.
National and Global SDG Cities Networks

Leveraging our current networks to reach out and connect to other SDG Centres and Global SDG Networks

Malaysia’s Progress To Date:
- 2021: 3 VLR
- 2022: 1 VSR and 4 VLR
- 2023: 14 VLR

- Shah Alam, Selangor (2020-2022):
  - Developing a SDG roadmap and voluntary local review that addresses and reporting the progress of the 2030 Agenda
  - Prioritising and measures with partner for potential SDG project application

- Kuala Lumpur:
  - Developing a SDG roadmap and voluntary local review that addresses and reporting the progress of the 2030 Agenda
  - Raising awareness and capacity building about SDG
  - Establishment of SDG Centre @ Kuala Lumpur

- Sepang, Selangor (2022):
  - Raising awareness and capacity building about SDG

- Melaka Bersejarah (2022):
  - Raising awareness and capacity building about SDG
  - Developing a SDG roadmap and voluntary local review that addresses and reporting the progress of the 2030 Agenda

- Selayang, Selangor (2022):
  - Raising awareness and capacity building about SDG

- Sandakan, Sabah (2022):
  - Raising awareness and capacity building about SDG

- Miri, Sarawak (2022):
  - Raising awareness and capacity building about SDG

- Kota Samarahan, Sarawak (2022):
  - Raising awareness and capacity building about SDG

- Subang Jaya, Selangor (2020-2022):
  - Developing a voluntary local review that addresses and reporting the progress of the 2030 Agenda

- Klang, Selangor (2022):
  - Raising awareness and capacity building about SDG

- Alor Gajah, Melaka (2022):
  - Raising awareness and capacity building about SDG
  - Developing a SDG roadmap and voluntary local review that addresses and reporting the progress of the 2030 Agenda

- Malacca (2022):
  - Raising awareness and capacity building about SDG

- Penang Platform for Sustainable Urbanisation
  - 15 Members from Asia Pacific
SDG 11 is most significant to Malaysia as 77% of Malaysians today resides in cities and urban areas. Cities in Malaysia have been giving emphasis on SDG11.
MUF2022 is Malaysia’s 4th National Urban Forum - with the focus on Local Actions on SDGs Implementation.