Stakeholder engagement in the VNR process

Tuvalu VNR Training Workshop
28-29 October 2021
Some examples from the region:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>FIJI:</th>
<th>Nauru:</th>
<th>Australia:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Call for Proposals</td>
<td>Public consultations</td>
<td>Online Engagement Platform</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Civil Society SDG Forum</th>
<th>Survey</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
Stakeholder Engagement Group Work Exercise

Objective of this Group Work:
To identify who are the vulnerable that need to be heard and represented in the VNR Report; who are the stakeholders that represent these vulnerable groups; what is the plan of action to engage these stakeholders and incorporate their stories into the VNR.

Outcome of this Group Work:
Concept and outline for a comprehensive and inclusive stakeholder engagement plan
Stakeholder Engagement Group Work Exercise

Stage 1: Who are the vulnerable people in Tuvalu we need to reach
Stage 2: Who are the key stakeholders in Tuvalu we need to engage with (vulnerable groups/those who look after vulnerable groups)
Stage 3: What is the plan to engage with these stakeholder groups during the Tuvalu VNR process, which could be 3 steps:

   Step 1) Advocacy of VNR, Call for story ideas (November)
   Step 2) Drafting of stories (January – February)
   Step 3) Review of report (March – April)
Faafetai Lasi...

???Questions???