Universal Access to Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR) in Asia and the Pacific: equality, quality & accountability

Working Group 4
Policies, Governance, Financing for SRHR

Faustina Pereira
Prabina Bajracharya
Gaps and Emerging Trends in SRHR Policies and Governance

- Highlighting the importance of inclusive development and accountability
- Challenges faced by marginalized groups in accessing SRHR

This Photo by Unknown Author is licensed under CC BY Strengthening Legal and Policy Frameworks

- Enacting laws and policy to protect and advance SRHR
- Examples of successful legal changes (Thailand, India, Indonesia, South Korea, Philippines)
Addressing Social Stigma and Discrimination

- Raising awareness and changing cultural norms
- Nepal and the Philippines combatting stigma

This Photo by Unknown Author is licensed under CC BY Making SRHR Care Affordable

- Subsidies, public health system integration
- Thailand and Nepal
- Universal Health Care in Asia

This Photo by Unknown Author is licensed under CC BY Ensuring Equitable Access

- Extending services to marginalized groups and rural areas
- Role of telemedicine and digital health interventions
- India, Nepal, Philippines as examples
Advancing SRHR post-COVID

› Recognizing impact on SRHR

› Advocacy during health crises and the role of partnerships

› Preventing deprioritization of SRHR

This Photo by Unknown Author is licensed under CC BY-NC-ND
Impact of Investment on SRHR

- Positive outcomes of investments
- Ensuring the availability, affordability, accessibility, acceptability and quality SRHR for all
Sustaining SRHR Advocacy

- Addressing legal/policy barriers and create enabling legal/policy environment
- Countering attacks and deprioratization of SRHR
- Long-term investment for AAAQ SRHR for all
Igniting Change Through Law

CENTER for REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS