

TRAINING IN ECONOMIC STATISTICS IN RUSSIA

Andrey Tatarinov
ROSSTAT

1. System of training:

- 3 training centres,
- training facilities in each regional division of Rosstat,
- training is provided by universities and research centres on the basis of public sales.

2. Forms of training:

- short-term training programmes on the basis of full-time tuition and distant learning,
- training seminars,
- training visits abroad (NSO's and international organisations).

3. Programmes of training on economic statistics:

- a set of special short-term training visits to ONS's and international organisations funded by programme of State Statistics Development (SSD 2) - RF and World Bank loan,
- tuition programme on SNA 2008 (started in 2012) funded by Rosstat,
- participation in international training seminars funded by UNSD, IMF, UNECE, etc.
- study visits (mostly instructions) funded by IMF.

4. Plans for development of training on economic statistics:

- training programme on macroeconomic accounts (200 hours for professional statisticians and 36-72 hours for policy-makers), will be funded by SSD 2,
- training programme on regional accounts (120 hours for professional statisticians 36 hours for policy-makers), will be funded by SSD 2,
- formation of a new resource and training centre in Rosstat, funded by RF and World Bank loan (will be available for use by CIS countries).