

Group I

Title: Sustainability resource-leveraging

1. Initiative led by government and private sector to fund the projects for investment and market access
2. Cost sharing between government and private sectors
3. Cost sharing between government and Development Partners
4. Enhanced public-private partnership, and Institutional Capacity as well as human resource

Title: Trade and poverty reduction, gender equality and sustainable environment

1. Project design and project M&E should be in line with the respective National Policy guidelines and priorities for poverty reduction, gender equality and environment sustainability
2. Specific projects designed for addressing the cross-cutting issues – gender equality and environment

Group II

- Better policies coherence between Government and EIF Agenda including alignment with SDGs - make current plans smarter, extending coverage to social security issues and resource allocation to address pro-poor needs
- Strengthening local institutions including SMEs and cooperatives
- At strategic policy making level: ensure mechanism is put in place to address the poverty, environment and gender
- At implementation level: project selection to be based on poverty, environment and gender dimensions
- In global value chain development initiatives to address the issues
- Stepping up efforts on education for end users
- Global services value chain
- Removal of NTM
- Investment in quality infrastructure and standards
- At action plan level: support development of action plan for regional integration
- Identifying quick-win projects
- Address data/information gaps for SDG reporting
- Looking beyond EIF for alternative funding resources
- Assist in developing alternative implementation models
- Further engagement with the private sector