

Asia-Pacific Sustainable Development Journal submission guidelines

The Asia-Pacific Sustainable Development Journal (APSDJ) is based on recognition of the interconnected and multidisciplinary nature of sustainable development. Published biannually, it is intended to stimulate debate and assist in the formulation of evidence-based policymaking in the Asia-Pacific region towards the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

The APSDJ welcomes the submission of original contributions on themes and issues related to sustainable development that are policy-oriented and relevant to Asia and the Pacific. The articles should be centred on discussing challenges pertinent to one or more dimensions of sustainable development, policy options and implications and/or policy experiences that may be of benefit to the region.

Authors familiar with the Asia-Pacific region are encouraged to submit their work. All manuscripts will undergo a rigorous double-blind peer-review process.

1. Manuscripts

All material submitted for the consideration of the Editorial Board should be in English. The manuscripts should be typed, double-spaced, on one side of white A4 paper. They should not exceed 8,000 words, including tables, figures, references and other materials and include a short abstract (200 words) of the issues addressed and the most important policy-related findings.

Manuscripts are accepted on the understanding that they may be edited. Contributors are required to sign a consent form verifying that their articles are original and have not been published in any other publications or refereed journal(s).

All manuscripts will be submitted to double-blind peer review by professionals in the field. The name(s) of the author(s) or other identifying information should, therefore, be placed only on the title page in order to preserve anonymity. The title page should also include such information as institutional affiliation(s), complete mailing address, telephone number and the email of the author(s).

Manuscripts should be sent by email to the chief editors of APSDJ at escap-apsdj@un.org.

2. Tables and Figures

All tables and figures should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numbers. Each table should be typed double-spaced. Tables and figures should be planned to fit the proportions of the printed page. Full information on the source(s) should appear below the table or figure, followed by notes, if any, in lower-case letters.

Once a manuscript is accepted for publication, the author(s) will be asked to supply figures, tables and charts, preferably in Microsoft Excel or any major spreadsheet program.

3. Footnotes and Quotations

Footnotes, if any, should be numbered consecutively with superscript Arabic numerals. They should be typed single-spaced and placed at the bottom of each page. They should not be used solely for citing references.

Quotations should be double-spaced. A copy of the page(s) of the original source of the quotation, as well as a copy of the cover page of that source should be provided.

4. References

Authors should ensure that there is a complete reference for every citation in the text. References in the text should follow the author-date format, followed, if necessary, by page numbers, for example, Becker (1964, pp. 13-24). List only references that are cited in the text or footnotes. References, listed alphabetically, should be typed double-spaced on a separate page in the following style:

Sen, Amartya (2009). The Idea of Justice. Cambridge, Mass: Harvard University Press.

Husseini, Rana (2007). Women leaders attempt to bridge East-West cultural divide. Jordan Times, 9 May.

Krueger, Alan B., and Lawrence H. Summers (1987). Reflections on the inter-industry wage structure. In Unemployment and the Structure of Labour Markets, Kevin Lang and Jonathan S. Leonard, eds. London: Basis Blackwell.

The Asia-Pacific Sustainable Development Journal (APSDJ) is a rebranded publication issued by the Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP). It builds on the success of two former ESCAP journals – the Asia-Pacific Population Journal, launched in 1986, and the Asia-Pacific Development Journal, launched in 1994.

APSDJ is based on recognition of the interconnected and multidisciplinary nature of sustainable development. Published biannually, it aims to stimulate debate and assist in the formulation of evidence-based policymaking in the Asia-Pacific region towards the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.
