Papua New Guinea

Civil Registry and Vital Statistics:

The government of PNG also now is in support of the Civil registration and vital statistics development. One of it’s output in progress is the implementation process in the NID project which is current in progress in parts of the PNG. The government of PNG is right behind this project because there will be lots of benefits from this and has funded this project to go ahead.