

Tentative Agenda – Workshop

20th June 2019, Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea

Thursday, 20th June 2019. Workshop for the Development Account Project “Evidence-based policies for the Sustainable Use of Energy Resources in Asia and the Pacific” Venue: Airways Hotel
09:00-09:15	Opening and welcome statement by ESCAP - Participants Introduction
09:15-10:30	Lessons learned from the Pacific countries - Processes, challenges and opportunities in data collection, - Forecasting and data modelling Interactive round table discussion on policy making process - Problem identification and appraisal of policy options - Monitoring and evaluation process
10:30-10:45	Coffee break and Group Photo
10:45-12:00	Experience sharing - Thailand’s energy sector policy - Overview of Thailand’s energy policy from the perspective of SDG7 and NDC - Review and evaluation of Thailand’s Renewable Energy Policy Interactive round table discussion on the supply side of evidence - Data sources and capacities in energy modelling - Communicating evidences to policy makers - Introduction of NEXTSTEP as decision making tool
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-15:00	2030 energy transition – challenges in decision making - Understanding key targets for 2030 energy transition - Challenges in achieving the 2030 targets Interactive round table discussion on how to address these challenges - Supporting policy makers with energy modelling/analysis - Integrated approach to decision making for 2030 energy transition
15:00-15:15	Coffee break
15:15-16:30	ESCAP’s support with 2030 energy transition - Introduction to NEXSTEP as a decision-making tool - Using NEXSTEP for SDG7 and NDC planning
16:30-16:45	Wrap-up, feed-back and thank you

