

Migrant children in Asia – Pacific: How to address their needs and uphold their rights

© Michael Amendolia / Save the Children

This side event will discuss how the Global Compact for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration can ensure that the rights of migrant children are upheld. It will also present challenges faced by migrant children in Asia-Pacific, particularly focusing on care and protection, access to services and child immigration detention, as well as showcase good practices in the region.

Date and time: Wednesday 8 November at 09:00 – 10:00

Location: Meeting Room E, UNCC

Moderator:

Stephen Blight, Regional Advisor, UNICEF

Panelists:

Verena Knaus, Senior Migration Advisor, UNICEF

Ratirose Supaporn, Asia Senior Manager for Migration and Displacement, Save the Children

Vivienne Chew, Asia Pacific Regional Co-Ordinator, International Detention Coalition