

Introduction of Speakers

Forum on Trade Digitalization for Sustainable Regional Integration

Session 1
The role of cross-border trade digitalization in sustainable regional integration
 Mr. Yann Duval	Mr. Yann Duval, Chief, Trade Policy and Facilitation Section, Trade, Investment and Innovation Division, United Nations ESCAP. Over the past 15 years, Dr. Duval has conducted research and delivered technical assistance and advisory services on trade policy and facilitation throughout Asia and the Pacific, including on the WTO Trade Facilitation Agreement. He spearheaded the development of the Asia-Pacific Research and Training Network on Trade (ARTNeT), as well as the creation of the ESCAP-World Bank Trade Cost Database and the UN Global Survey on Trade Facilitation and Paperless Trade Implementation. Dr. Duval was also instrumental in the development of the United Nations Network of Experts for Paperless Trade and Transport in Asia and the Pacific (UNNExT) and the negotiation of a new intergovernmental Framework Agreement on Facilitation of Cross-Border Paperless Trade in Asia and the Pacific, adopted as a UN treaty in 2016. Prior to joining the UN, he held faculty positions at the Asian Institute of Technology and Washington State University, USA.
 Mr. Somnuk Keretho	Mr. Somnuk Keretho is now working as director at Institute for Information Technology Innovation (INOVA) and assistant professor at Kasetsart University. He has assisted many ministries in Thailand on digital strategies, National Single Window for trade facilitation, business process reengineering, interoperability and standardization. He has been actively contributing to UNNExT since 2007 and contributed to many UNNExT publications. Meanwhile, he provides strategic advising, training and technical supports to more than 20 countries in the Asia, Pacific and Africa regions. He was also a project lead for the work that became the UN/CEFACT Recommendation No.42 - Establishment of a Trade and Transport Facilitation Monitoring Mechanism (2017). Mr. Keretho received his Ph.D. in computer science from University of Louisiana at Lafayette, USA.

Session 2 Emerging digitalization practices in B-to-B transactions
 Mr. Shantanu Godbole	Dr. Shantanu Godbole leads the Industries Research department at IBM Research - India, focusing on building innovative technology solutions for the Agriculture, Retail, Financial Services, and Education industries. His team combines the best of AI and Blockchain technologies, researching and experimenting in-market with clients to develop first of a kind solutions, that then make their way to IBM product, platforms, and service offerings. Before this, he led the founding and growth of the IBM Center for Blockchain Innovation in Singapore, building solutions in the domains of trade and finance. He has been with IBM Research since 2006 and has spent 2 years in the analytics services business of IBM as a Global Analytics Architect building and deploying text mining, speech analytics, and predictive analytics solutions. He is a Senior Technical Staff Member at IBM and a member of the IBM Academy of Technology. Mr. Shantanu Godbole has a Ph.D. in machine learning from IIT Bombay and is active in professional service and mentoring.
 Mr. Shawn Chen	Mr. Shawn Chen has joined GS1 community for nine years. He spent eight years in GS1 Taiwan province of China as a Project Manager, and shifted to GS1 Thailand in 2018 to continue his contributions to the community as the Section Manager of Marketing and Industry Engagement. He has been worked on several domestic and overseas projects, and introduced GS1 standards to the government, institutes, academic and industry sectors. He also collaborated with several GS1 Member Organizations to proceed training program project. He has assisted both The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) of Thailand and Taiwan province of China to implement GS1 standards into their regulation.
 Mr. Ng Chee Keong	Chee Keong has more than 20 years' experience of sales in enterprise technology industry. Currently, he heads up the Global Sales & Business Development for Global eTrade Services (GeTS) and is part of Senior Management Committee. Leading the sales and business development functions, he works with cross-departmental to formulate the GTM strategy and is responsible for achieving corporate revenue goal, profitability and market share. He is also tasked to drive business transformation by enabling customers and partners collaboration. has held leadership portfolios that cover the Asia Pacific region during his career in IBM, Atos, Progress Software and INTTRA

	Mr. Armen Manukyan is currently working in the Directorate of Compliance and Facilitation, World Customs Organization (WCO), responsible for Single Window environment, Coordinated Border Management, Globally Networked Customs and other areas for automation of customs procedures. Before joining the WCO, he worked at the State Revenue Committee of Republic of Armenia as the head of International Relations Department and executive assistant to chairman. Mr. Armen Manukyan holds a master's degree at Sapienza University of Rome, majoring in Political Science, International Relations.
	Mr. Donald Lewis is currently an Adjunct Professor in the Department of Economics, Law and International Business, University of San Francisco School of Management. Mr. Lewis previously served as a Visiting Associate Professor of Law, Lecturer in Law, and Research Fellow at Stanford Law School where he taught courses on Trade and Investment in China and Dispute Resolution in China, while conducting research on U.S.-China trade and economic relations and China-WTO issues. While at HKU, Professor Lewis acted as Director of the East Asian International Economic Law and Policy (EAIEL) Program and was the first Academic Coordinator of the official World Trade Organization (WTO) Regional Trade Policy Course (RTPC) for the governments of Asia Pacific. He had done much research on China's Belt and Road Initiative and published extensively on this regard. Professor Lewis obtained his A.B. cum laude in international relations from the University of Southern California; his J.D. from Emory University School of Law; and his LL.M. from the University of London, School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS).
	Duangthip Chomprang is currently ITD's Director for International Cooperation department. She comes from a multidisciplinary background with abundant experience in international investment and finance, commercial contracts, productivity and sustainable development, business development and technology transfer specialization, both in the commercial and non-commercial sector. Her work experiences cover basic productivity to frontier technologies. With over 20 years of experiences she has authored various policy papers as well as, created many centers of excellence in the region. Her current roles include facilitating understanding and advancing dialogues. She is a frequent invited speaker and participant at the various Internet related platforms such as APT, APTLD, APRICOT, Global IGF, ESCAP, EU, UNECE, OECD, ASEAN, the World Bank as well as national policy forums hosted by Governments.

Special Learning Session

Mr. Huang Feng

Huang Feng is the Director-General of Asia Pacific Model E-port Network (APMEN).

Mr. Huang has served as Deputy Director-General of the Department of Foreign Investment Administration, MOFCOM, China from August 2011, the Vice Chairman of Shanghai Municipal Commission of Commerce from June 2010, and other official positions since he joined Shanghai Municipal Government in 1992. Mr. Huang also served as Arbitrator of China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission and Shanghai International Arbitration Commission, and Researcher of Free Trade Pilot Zone research center in Shanghai University of Finance and Economics.

Mr. Huang holds an M.A. in Economics from FUDAN University, MSc Management from London School of Economics and Political Science, and B.A. in World Economics from Shanghai University of Finance and Economics.

Session 3

Emerging digitalization practices in shipping and logistics

Mr. Eric Ballot

Mr. Eric Ballot is a professor of supply chain management and industrial engineering at MINES ParisTech — PSL. He is also Scientific Director of the Physical Internet Chair, MINES-ParisTech.

Since 2015 he has been a visiting professor at Hong Kong University. He serves as a board member of several institutions, including the National Urban Logistics Research program, GS1 innovation, AIRL and ALICE ETP, and was appointed an accredited expert by the Appeal Court of Paris in 2002. Eric has led many research projects both within the industry (Airbus, Renault, Danone) and with international academic partners such as EPFL and Georgia Tech. Eric is the author of several research papers and book chapters. His research has been recognized at conferences and been awarded research prizes (IESM, ILS, PREDIT). Eric is the director of the Physical Internet Chair, leading the Physical Internet initiative in Europe with several projects funded in France and one at European level.

Mr. André Sceia

Mr. André Sceia is an information officer at UNECE Sustainable Transport Division. He has been working for more than 15 years in UNECE, where he has been managing various projects, in particular, the eTIR project, which aims at the computerization of the TIR procedure and, more recently, various related pilot projects.

He holds a master's degree in econometrics from the University of Geneva and PhD in environmental economics from Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Lausanne.

	Mr. Masato Nakane is a Senior Economist of the Regional Cooperation and Operations Coordination Division of the South Asia Department and also a country team leader for Maldives at the Asian Development Bank (ADB). He is specialized in regional cooperation in South Asia, especially trade facilitation. He is also responsible for ADB's operations in Maldives. Prior to joining ADB, he was an Economist in Food and Agriculture Organization responsible for monitoring economic and trade policy development of different projects and proposing policy recommendations to the developing countries. He worked as an economist in the International Monetary Fund responsible for conducting economic surveillance and providing policy advice to Asian countries. He served as a Consultant to the World Bank where he analyzed the relationship between rural development and poverty in Nepal. Earlier in his career, he worked as a Research Assistant in Cornell University, an Intern in ADB, and as staff in Japan International Cooperation Agency. He completed his Doctorate and Master's degrees in Applied Economics from Cornell University, USA. He also has a Bachelor's degree in International Relations from the University of Tokyo.
	Mr. Alvin Mah is a Single Window expert in the Customs and Trade industry with more than 20 years of deep knowledge on ASEAN region, South Asia region and Central Asia region with respects to trade facilitation, Customs management services and e-Commerce. He worked or advised for the governments of Myanmar, Syria and Viet Nam, Mongolia, Nepal, Bangladesh, etc. Alvin has also served as resource personnel to many international organizations, some of them are: the Annual ASEAN Directors-General Customs Meeting, ASEAN Directors of ICT Customs, ASEAN Single Window Steering Committee, ASEAN-EU Program for Regional Integration Services. (APRIS), and Establishment of knowledge experts for ASEAN Member States, as well as to the UNESCAP Asia Pacific Trade Facilitation Forum.
	Mr. Harm Jan van Burg is currently working as a senior policy advisor at the Ministry of Finance (Treasury) in the Netherlands. Over recent years, Harm Jan's two primary roles have been member at Netherlands E-government Management team and Program Director at the Dutch Standard Business Reporting (SBR) Program and its predecessor the Netherlands Taxonomy project. From 2012 onward, he has been active in UN/CEFACT as one of Vice Chairs. Mr. Harm Jan also chaired OASIS Tax-xml, an international committee reporting to the OECD and tasked with the advancement of open (XML-based) standards in the global tax community. Harm Jan has been awarded with the Dutch Innovation Award 2006, EU Best Practice Award 2005, Dutch XML award 2003, etc.

Mr. Ali Rahbari

Mr. Rahbari is currently the President of ICeCD (Iran Center for e-Commerce Development). Before this governmental responsibility, he worked 14 years at private sector in the field of System Architecture, System Engineering, and System Operations Management. He has assisted many ministries in Iran on digitalization of G2G and G2B transactions.

He is also a Ph.D. candidate of industrial engineering at University of Tehran, and he is currently a faculty member of Islamic Azad University of Damghan. He has several publications on supply chain management under the uncertainty, especially on cross-docking systems

Session 4
Emerging digitalization practices in B-to-G and G-to-G interactions

Mr. Joaquin González

Mr. Joaquin González is a Mexican Customs Officer serving at the Customs Modernization Administration.

In Customs Modernization Administration, he is in charge of the improvement and development of the Mexican Single Window (VUCEM). He is also a WCO Expert on Single Window Environment since 2017. He was designated in 2016 by the World Bank as a consultant for e-manifest for Central America. Before joining the Customs, he had served in the Ministry of Commerce (Economy) on the authorization of License, Permits, Certificates and other non-tariff regulations. He also worked at a Customs broker agency and an international freight forwarder company.

Mr. Joaquin Gonzalez holds a Multimodal Logistics and International Business Degree.

Ms. Caroline Tabitha

Ms. Caroline Tabitha is an assistant manager at Customs Business Transformation office, Kenya Revenue Authority, EAC SCT trainer and a part-time lecturer at Kenya School of Revenue Administration.

Before joining Kenya Revenue Authority, she worked for Teachers Service Commission as a secondary school teacher for nine years, teaching Economics, Business Studies and Geography. She has in depth knowledge in customs clearance and procedures, customs laws and administration.

 Mr. Muwasiq Noor	Mr. Muwasiq Noor is currently the Deputy Head of Operation and Development at Indonesia National Single Window Operating Agency. Mr. Muwasiq Noor has 5 years' experience at telecommunication industry and 15 years' experience at trade facilitation industry. He actively participates in international trade facilitation organizations such as APEC Transportation Working Group, AFACT, UNESCAP, ASW, WCO, PAA (Pan Asian e-commerce Alliance) and other related organizations. He is one of the experts of Indonesia National Single Window and ASEAN Single Window. He is active in some trade facilitation programmes in Indonesia, such as INATRADE e-licensing programme in the Ministry of Trade, e-BPOM programme in the Badan POM (National FDA), etc. He is also Head of Online Single Submission for Business Licensing Reform Task Force. Mr. Muwasiq also lectures at Binus University. He holds the bachelor degrees of electronic engineering from Polytechnic of University of Brawijaya and Sepuluh Nopember Institute of Technology and finished his master degree at University of Indonesia.
 Ms. Lin Jing	Ms. Lin Jing is now working as Vice Director General at Tianjin Customs, China. She is a specialist of cross-border trade facilitation and e-cert and sanitary and phytosanitary standards (SPS), an UNESCAP resource person of UNNEX T (Network of Experts for Paperless Trade and Transport in Asia and the Pacific), a panel member of ADB (Asian Development Bank), UNECE (United Nations Economic Commission for Europe) and APEC (Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation). She participated in the research and policy formulation of the establishment of China's FTA, and as an expert of the rules of origin, participated in the FTA negotiations with 11 countries including China-Chile, China-New Zealand, China-Australia, etc. She also took part in international communication activities such as the Kimberley Process Certification Scheme and the Geographical Indication Protection.

Mr. Bryan Suan Tin Tan

Mr. Bryan Suan Tin Tan is a Partner at Pinsent Masons.

He is experienced in technology work and banking/financing work, including domain name disputes, intellectual property due diligence pursuant and international trade and corporate matters. Bryan has worked with numerous Internet and Info-communications companies from startups to evolving companies to NASDAQ listed market leaders on a variety of matters including online contracts, joint ventures, solution services, disputes, financing and regulatory issues locally and internationally. He also worked on e-banking documentation and issues with financial institutions and advised on banking and project financing transactions locally and regionally.

Mr. Jonathan KOH

Jonathan is currently a Senior Advisor with Nuctech Company Limited, a spin-off from Tsinghua University. Nuctech provides advanced technology, security inspection and systems solutions company to more than 150 countries globally.

Jonathan previously served with SAP AG, and CrimsonLogic, where he established the Trade Facilitation Centre of Excellence, He had hands-on project experience in over 20 Trade Facilitation / Single Window programmes globally. He served as the Project Director for several Single Window implementation projects in Africa and Middle East. He was the lead consultant to the Government of Hong Kong SAR for their new Trade Single Window as well as the Government of Greece for their National Trade Facilitation Strategy and Roadmap.

Jonathan's current area of research is in the promotion of the best practices of China's Customs, Single Window as well as their Cross-Border E-Commerce systems.

Ms. Rama Dewan

Rama Dewan is currently working as Joint Chief at Bangladesh Tariff Commission. She is responsible for Trade Policy, Anti-dumping measures, Countervailing measures, Safeguard measures, SPS, TBT, and Trade Facilitation.

She has been with Bangladesh Tariff Commission since 1993. Prior to joining Bangladesh Tariff Commission, she worked in UNICEF.

She completed her Bachelor of Commerce with Honors and Master of Commerce in Management from University of Dhaka, Bangladesh. She also holds master's degree in Public Administration and master's degree in Business Administration from University of Canberra, Australia.

Session 5 Enabling mutual recognition of electronic data in cross-border paperless trade transactions
 Mr. Tahseen Khan	Mr Tahseen Ahmad Khan is working in the area of Trade Facilitation, Electronic Governance, Electronic Commerce and Electronic Security at national and international level for about four decades. At the national level Mr Khan has handled major national projects in Trade and Industry sectors, some of which includes Electronic Trade, Electronic, Procurement, Electronic Intellectual Property, Net Banking, Secure National and International Transactions, Electronic Commerce Act, etc. At regional level, he is working as an expert for United Nations Cross border Paperless Trade initiative of UN ESCAP. He is also a member of the UNNExT Committee. He also has the distinction of holding many other positions like UN/CEFACT Rapporteur for Asia. At international level, he is currently engaged in the work program of United Nations Centre for Trade Facilitation and Electronic Business (UN/CEFACT), Geneva as its one of Vice Chairs. He is actively working on Ensuring legally significant trusted trans-boundary electronic interaction, International Trade and Mutual recognition, Block Chain for Trade Facilitation, Internet of Things for Trade Facilitation, etc.
 Ms. Hong Xue	Dr. Hong XUE is the Law Professor of Beijing Normal University and Director of Institute for Internet Policy & Law (IIPL). She is the National Expert on E-Commerce appointed by the China's Ministry of Commerce. She is the Co-Lead of Expert Draft Panel of E-Commerce Law. In addition, she is the Vice Chair of International Cooperation Committee of China Cybersecurity Association, Deputy President of Beijing E-Commerce Legal Research Society and Co-Director of China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC) Online Dispute Resolution Centre. Ms. Xue also actively participates in international collaborations in this field. She is a Member of UNNExT Advisory Committee, the 3rd Experts Council of APEC E-Commerce Business Alliance, the Expert Advisory Council of APIDE and International Chamber of Commerce (China) Arbitration & ADR Committee.

 Mr. Sung Heun Ha	Mr. Sung Heun Ha is currently the Director of International Cooperation and Business, Korea Trade Network (KTNET). Sung Heun has over 20 years of experience in the trade facilitation industry. In KTNET, he is responsible for planning and developing cross-border paperless trade services and implementing Single Window and other e-Government system projects. He has initiated several partnership programs for cross-border paperless trade, including Pan Asian e-Commerce Alliance and world first cross-border electronic certificate of origin exchange project between Republic of Korea and Taiwan province of China. Sung Heun completed his Bachelor of Science in economic statistics from Sung Kyun Kwan University and Master of Global Supply Chain Management from Dan Kook University, Republic of Korea.
 Mr. Luca Castellani	Luca Castellani is a Legal Officer in the Secretariat of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL). He joined the Office of Legal Affairs in United Nations in 2001 and the UNCITRAL secretariat in 2004. As secretary of UNCITRAL Working Group IV (Electronic Commerce), he oversaw the preparation of the UNCITRAL Model Law on Electronic Transferable Records. He has also contributed to drafting the Framework Agreement on Facilitation of Cross-border Paperless Trade in Asia and the Pacific. From March 2012 to November 2013, he was assigned as first Head of the UNCITRAL Regional Centre for Asia and the Pacific, Incheon. He has a law degree from the University of Torino and a doctorate degree in comparative law from the University of Trieste and a master in international law from New York University.
 Mr. Henrik Hvid Jensen	Mr. Henrik Hvid Jensen is the innovator and designer of Maersk's solution for digitizing global trade, and has designed Blockshipping's blockchain based container sharing platform. He is currently working with World Economic Forum on designing a politically and competitively neutral digital identity scheme for global supply chains, and with Inter-American Development Bank on a toolkit for enabling blockchain based Trade Single Windows and global interoperability.

 Mr. Sang Won LIM	Sangwon Lim is an Economic Affairs Officer in the Trade, Investment and Innovation Division of United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP). In ESCAP, he specializes in trade facilitation, (cross-border) paperless trade and Single Window. Before joining the ESCAP in 2009, he had served for the National IT Industry Promotion Agency (NIPA) of the Republic of Korea for more than 9 years, specializing in application of ICT in various public and private sector business domains. He had supported international development of trade facilitation and e-business by actively participating in multiple regional and international platforms. He was the Rapporteur for Asia and the Pacific in the United Nations Centre for Trade Facilitation and Electronic Business (UN/CEFACT) from 2003 - 2009. He received Ph.D. in logistics management from Chulalongkorn University, Thailand.
--	---

Session 6
Panel discussion on trade digitalization for sustainable development

 Ms. Yoon Jee Kim	Ms. Yoon Jee Kim is currently working as a Fishery Officer (Trade and Regulatory Affairs) at Fisheries and Aquaculture Department, Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO). YoonJee focuses on FAO initiatives concerning trade facilitation, market access and governance issues concerning the fisheries sector. She has experience providing legal and technical assistance to various national and regional regulatory bodies. Prior to this role, YoonJee was an Associate Legal Officer at FAO, providing legal assistance to member states in areas of international trade, food safety and natural resource management. YoonJee holds a BA with Honors from Stanford University in Political Science, an MSc from the London School of Economics in Global Politics with a focus on Political Economy and International Trade, and a JD from Fordham Law School.
---	---

 Ms. Lisa McAuley	Ms. Lisa McAuley is Chief Executive Officer of Global Trade Professionals Alliance. She is currently involved as a member at WCO ecommerce committee, Ecommerce Foundation, The Global Trade Dialogue – ICC and WTO, UNCEFT and Australian Standards Committee for the ISO development of standards for Blockchain Technology. Lisa McAuley was the former CEO of the Export Council of Australia (ECA). Lisa worked in Financial Services companies both in London and Australia. She is also on the AmCham Trade Advisory Group and the Board of Yuluma Holdings. She used to be an advisor to the Australian and UK Government on OECD report on the competitiveness of Australia's service sector, National Committee for Trade Facilitation, Steering Committee for the Prime Ministers' ASEAN Summit, Australia and New Zealand Leadership Forum- focus on Non-Tariff Barriers, etc. Lisa holds a Bachelor of Economics (Social Sciences) from the University of Sydney and is completing her Master of International Business at UNSW.
--	---

 Mr. Patrik Jonasson	Mr. Patrik Jonasson is currently working as Director at Public Policy Asia-Pacific, GS1 Global Office. He is responsible for public policy in the Asia Pacific region for GS1. The GS1 system of standards is the most widely used supply chain standards system in the world, commonly known for the ubiquitous EAN/UPC barcodes. Patrik has extensive experience working with Asia-pacific Governments and industry in the areas of Product Identification and data sharing especially for FMCG/Retail, Healthcare, E-commerce, Trade Facilitation/Customs Processes, Food Safety/Traceability. In previous roles, he was representing business in the public - private dialogue with the Governments of ASEAN, working on trade and investment issues, supporting increased market access and stronger business ties between EU and ASEAN. Mr. Patrik Jonasson has a Master of Science degree in Business Administration with Japanese studies from the School of Business, Law & Economics at University of Gothenburg, Sweden.
 Ms. Cecilia Reyes	Ms. Cecilia Reyes is an ESCAP Consultant and UNNExT expert. Her expertise covers areas of international trade facilitation, particularly on customs administration and operations and application of change management and the utilization of information and communication technology for e-government. She served the Philippine government at the Bureau of Customs for many years and was directly involved in the design, development and implementation of various computer-based management information and control systems. She also participated as Key Expert in the EU-RP Trade Related Technical Assistance 2 (TRTA 2) project to enhance the capacity of deeper integration into the international trading systems. She is a holder of a master degree in Business Administration, diploma in Bachelor of Science and a certificate in Management Information and Control System.
Special Session Lessons from operation of the UNNExT Task Force on Cross-border Electronic Data Exchange: Northeast Asia and demonstration of pilot-based cross-border data exchange
 Ms. Kyeongrim Ahn	Ms. Kyeongrim Ahn is currently working as the Head of R&D Center at The K Consulting Company, which provides solutions for automation and standardization to support trade and logistics facilitation of global SCM. She is also actively involved in developing international standards in International Maritime Organization (IMO), UN/CEFACT, etc. She also works as an international consultant of ESCAP, IMO, ADB and also lecturers at Department of Management Information in Hanyang Cyber University. She holds a Ph.D. in Computer Science.

Ms. Nergui Munkhzul

Ms. Nergui Munkhzul works at IT Center at Mongolian Customs General Administration. Prior to Customs General Administration, she worked at BigData Business Division at Gaion LLC, Republic of Korea. Her other work experience includes a lecturer at Huree University, Mongolia, a developer at KTNET, Republic of Korea, and a developer at EngineeringSoft LLC, Mongolia.