

Session 3: Multi-stakeholder Partnerships to Enhance South-South and Triangular Cooperation

Moderator

Netithorn PRADITSARN

Vice President
Group Sustainability and Communications
Deputy Secretary General of the Global Compact Network
Association (GCNA)
Charoen Pokphand Group, Co. Ltd.

Dr. Netithorn Praditsarn is the Vice President for Sustainability and Communications at the Charoen Pokphand Group Co. Ltd. He concurrently serves as the Deputy Secretary-General of the Global Compact Network Association (GCNA). His role is important in driving the establishment of the Global Compact Network, Thailand, a local association of companies from various sectors and in different sizes to promote sustainable business practices in line with the United Nations Global Compact sustainability principles. In addition, he is a member of the National Parliamentary Subcommittee on Promoting the National Image and Protecting Thai Nationals Overseas and the National Committee on Strategies, Preparation, Monitoring and Evaluation of the National Action Plan on Business and Human Rights under the Ministry of Justice since 2016. Prior to work in the private sector, Dr. Praditsarn served as Chief of the Human Rights Section in the Department of International Organizations, Ministry of Foreign Affairs and was posted at the Permanent Mission of Thailand to the United Nations Office in Geneva.

Panelists

Mitchel LEE

Mr. Mitchel Lee is a career diplomat from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Singapore. He is now the Deputy Director of Technical Cooperation Directorate of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs Singapore, a position he has held since 2016. His oversight includes policy on development work and capacity-building for Singapore's technical assistance and development aid programme. Prior to this position, Mr. Lee was Deputy Director of the International Organizations Directorate of the Ministry, in charge of human rights, social and development issues. Before that he was serving as an Assistant Director of the ASEAN Directorate. He was posted in New York as Consul at the

Deputy Director/International Programmes

*Ministry of Foreign Affairs
Singapore*

Valerie CLIFF

Deputy Director for Asia and Pacific

United Nations Development Program (UNDP)

Singapore Consulate in New York (2008-2012) and in Phnom Penh, Cambodia (2003-2006) as First Secretary. Mr. Lee graduated from the National University of Singapore, specializing in Sociology and Political Science.

Ms. Valerie Cliff is UNDP Deputy Director of the Regional Bureau for Asia and the Pacific since 2017. Prior to that, she served as the UN Resident Coordinator and UNDP Resident Representative in the Republic of Djibouti from 2014 to 2017. Her previous assignments included senior management roles in UNDP New York, and as UN Resident Coordinator and UNDP Resident Representative in Kuwait. She has also worked in the Occupied Palestinian Territories, Bosnia and Herzegovina and Cambodia. Before joining the UN, Ms. Cliff worked in the financial sector and served as a Volunteer for the International Rescue Committee in Peshawar, Pakistan. She holds a Master of Business Administration degree (MBA) from Harvard Business School and undergraduate degrees from the London School of Economics and Amherst College.

Thomas PARKS

Country Representative in Thailand

The Asia Foundation

Mr. Thomas Parks is The Asia Foundation country representative in Thailand, where he manages programs that promote peaceful conflict resolution, economic policy reform, regional cooperation, more responsive and transparent systems of governance, and Thailand's emerging role as a development partner. Before this role, he worked at the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) as Senior Governance and Fragility Specialist. He has been based in Thailand since 2008, and has worked on the Foundation's Thailand program for more than 15 years in various roles. Mr. Parks first joined the Foundation in 2001 as a Program Officer, later serving as Assistant Director for Governance and Law. From 2008-2013, he served as the Foundation's Regional Director for Conflict and Governance, based in Thailand. He managed the Foundation's Programme Partnership Arrangement (PPA) with the UK Government's Department for International Development (DFID) Conflict, Humanitarian, and Security (CHASE) department. Mr. Parks studied Government at Harvard University and International Affairs, focusing on Southeast Asia Studies and International Economics at Johns Hopkins University.

Alex
BRILLANTES. Jr

President
Asian Association for Public Administration

Dr. Alex Bello Brillantes Jr. is the President of the Asian Association for Public Administration. He is affiliated to the National College of Public Administration and Governance, University of the Philippines Dilliman. He is also a professor of Public Administration, specializing in anti-corruption, comparative public administration, decentralization, development and underdevelopment, and governance of institutions and development. He served as Dean of the National College of Public Administration and Governance for two terms and as a Commissioner of the Commission on Higher Education. He was also the Director of the Local Government Academy of the Department of Interior and Local Government. He has held positions in various organization among them, Chair of the Philippine Social Science Council and President of the Philippine Society for Public Administration. Dr. Brillantes has served as a consultant for several international institutions including the Asian Development Bank, the World Bank, the United Nations Development Programme, the Australian Agency for International Development, the Canadian International Development Agency and the United States Agency for International Development.

Joyce ZHANG

Vice Director-General

Finance Center for South-South Cooperation

Ms. Joyce Zhang is the Vice Director-General of the Finance Center for South-South Cooperation (FCSSC) and South South Education Foundation. FC-SSC is a non-profit international organization in Hong Kong which provides comprehensive solution plans for South-South cooperation projects and uses financial services as means to assist countries of the Global South to propel industrialization and achieve sustainable development towards achieving the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. FCSSC has a Special Consultative Status with ECOSOC of the United Nations since 2017. As Vice Director General of FCSSC, Ms. Zhang bridges partnership between the private sector, the public sector and the international organizations and institutions. Prior to this position, Ms. Zhang had a career in investment in the private sector in Hong Kong and Beijing. Her educational background is in Finance and Law. She graduated with LLB from the London School of Economics and is a qualified solicitor of England and Wales.