ASIA-PACIFIC DEVELOPMENT JOURNAL

INSTRUCTIONS TO CONTRIBUTORS

Published by the Macroeconomic Policy and Development Division (MPDD) of the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, the Asia-Pacific Development Journal provides a platform for the exchange of ideas and experiences on development issues and concerns facing the region and aims to stimulate policy debate and assist policy formulation. Published twice a year, the Journal welcomes policy-oriented articles and original pieces of work, focusing on development issues and challenges relevant to the Asian and the Pacific region.

1. MANUSCRIPTS

Authors are requested to provide copies of their manuscripts in English. The material should not have been previously published or submitted for publication elsewhere, and this should be stated by contributors in their covering letter to the Editorial Board. The manuscripts should be typed, double-spaced, on one side of white A4 paper and the length should not normally exceed 25-30 pages. Manuscripts are accepted subject to editorial revision.

Since all manuscripts will be refereed by professionals in the field, the name(s) of the author(s), institutional affiliation(s) and other identifying information should be placed on the title page only, in order to preserve anonymity. The title page should contain the following: (a) title; (b) name(s) of the author(s); (c) institutional affiliation(s); and (d) complete mailing address, telephone number, facsimile number and email address of the author, or of the primary author in the case of joint authors. The second page should contain the title, the name(s) of the author(s) and an abstract of approximately 150 words. Acknowledgements (if any) should appear after the abstract.

It is preferred that manuscripts be submitted by email to the address below (if hard copies are submitted, kindly provide two copies of the manuscript to the address below). The preferred word-processing software is MS Word. Once a manuscript is accepted for publication, the author(s) may be asked to submit electronic files of their manuscript, figures, tables and charts, as appropriate.

2. FOOTNOTES AND QUOTATIONS

Footnotes, if any, should be numbered consecutively with superscript Arabic numerals. They should be in double-spaced type. As the author-date system of referencing is to be used (see section 4 below), any footnotes should be of an explanatory nature. Quotations should be double-spaced. A copy of the page(s) of the original source of the quotation, as well as copy of the cover page of that source, should be provided.

3. TABLES AND FIGURES

All tables and figures should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals. Each table should be typed double-spaced. Tables and figures should be planned to fit the proportions of the printed page. Full source(s) should appear below the table/figure, followed by notes, if any, in lower-case letters.

4. REFERENCES

Authors should ensure that there is a complete reference for every citation in the text. References in the text should follow the author-date format, followed if necessary, by page numbers, for example, Becker (1964: 13-24). List only those references that are actually cited in the text or footnotes. References, listed alphabetically, should be typed double-spaced on a separate page in the following style:

Ahmed, E. and N. Stern (1983). "Effective taxes and tax reform in India", Discussion Paper 25, University of Warwick.

Desai, Padma, ed. (1983). Marxism, Central Planning, and the Soviet Economy (Cambridge, MA, MIT Press).

Krueger, Alan B. and Lawrence H. Summers (1987). "Reflections on the inter-industry wage structure", in Kevin Lang and Jonathan S. Leonard, eds., Unemployment and the Structure of Labour Markets (London, Basil Blackwell).

Sadorsky, P. (1994). "The behaviour of U.S. tariff rates: comment", American Economic Review, vol. 84, No. 4, September, pp. 1097-1103.

Terrones, M. (1987). "Macroeconomic policy cycle under alternative electoral structures: a signaling approach", unpublished.

For further details on referencing, please refer to the editorial guidelines at:

http://www.unescap.org/pdd/publications/questionnaire/apdj_editorial_guidelines.pdf.

The Editorial Board of the Asia-Pacific Development Journal wish to emphasize that papers need to be thoroughly edited in terms of the English language and authors are kindly requested to submit manuscripts that strictly conform to the editorial guidelines.
